OVERVIEW

Joan is an associate in the Corporate & Transactional Business Practice Group, the Unclaimed Property Practice Group, and the Representations & Warranties Practice Group. Her experience enables her to provide creative solutions to various corporate matters, such as entity formation, corporate governance, regulatory compliance, mergers and acquisitions, due diligence, and contract drafting. In addition to her corporate and business practice, Joan also has experience in unclaimed property matters, including compliance, negotiation, audit defense, and gift card program structuring.

As a Managing Editor of the Ohio State Business Law Journal, Joan honed her writing and analytical skills, which she now leverages to provide top-notch legal services to her clients.
